Eingangstext

Harlan Laboratories is a leading global provider of essential non-clinical contract research, research models, animal diets, and services to the pharmaceutical, biotech, medical device, agrochemical and chemical industries, as well as to academic and government research organizations. Our focus is on providing customers with products and services to optimize the discovery and safety of new medicines and compounds. We have over 3,000 employees in 12 countries, but we act locally, understanding the value of close relationship and collaboration with our costumers. For the enhancement of our team in Switzerland we have an opening for Toxicologist / Regulatory Affairs Manager REACH.

Job description

Toxicologist/ Regulatory Affairs Manager REACH / 1-14980

Responsibilities

In this role, you advise and assist customers on regulatory affairs issues with emphasis on toxicology, ensuring that high-quality technical content is delivered on time and within budget. You evaluate the technical quality of available toxicological data, provide gap analyses and prepare technical dossiers for REACH Phase-in and non-Phase-in substances. Based on your analysis, you develop appropriate test strategies, particularly for toxicological endpoints. In addition, you provide written expert opinions, conduct risk-assessments on toxicological issues and provide regulatory and scientific guidance regarding REACH initiatives. Finally, you are also responsible for the scientific monitoring of ongoing toxicological studies.

Profile/Qualifications

You have a technical degree in one of the life sciences, with advanced training in toxicology (preferably a degree in Toxicology). Familiarity with regulatory toxicology and a flair for working with both customers and health or government authorities is essential. You are precise and efficient, motivated, results-oriented and communicative and you remain flexible and creative under pressure. Strong PC and English-language skills are a given.

Harlan Offer

We offer you good terms of employment and excellent social contributions, a modern and professional organization in an international environment.
